Accommodation: Anantara Lawana Koh Samui Resort – Deluxe Lawana

Located close to the restaurants and nightlife of Chaweng Beach, Anantara Lawana tells the story of Samui through Sino-Thai design, charting the island's history through vernacular architecture and whimsical, storied touches.

The lifestyles of Thai-Chinese traders are echoed and honoured throughout the luxurious accommodation spaces, from the Pool Suites that resemble the old-style shop-houses of Middle Road, to the Pool Villas with their fishing lamps and maritime blues, arranged around the lagoon like a peaceful fishing village.

Nestled in a 120-year-old jungle canopy, Tree Tops Restaurant connects guest with the island's rich bounty tropical dishes made from local produce and unparalleled views of Samui's natural beauty while The Crab Shack offers the finest ocean's seafood.

Day 2 – 4 – 24th – 26th November 2025 Samui Free Day (B)

Day 6 – 28th November 2025 Bangkok City tour (B/L/D)

Breakfast at hotel, Morning visit Grand Palace. The Palace was the residence of the early Chakri Dynasty kings built some 210 years ago. The architecture is so stunning & breathtaking that you will need tons of film with you for your cameras. The complex houses not only the Royal residence and throne halls, but also government offices and the renowned Wat Phra Kaew, containing the most revered the Emerald Buddha Image in the country.

Next visit is Wat Pho, built by King Rama I nearly 200 years ago and housing the gigantic Reclining Buddha or Phra Buddhasaiyas. This distinctive image is 150 ft long and almost 50ft high and entirely covered in goldleaf. The soles of the feet are intricately inlaid with 108 auspicious signs of the Buddha. Wat Pho is also regarded as the first center of public education and the birthplace of traditional Thai massage, and as such is sometimes referred to as "Thailand's First University"
